REMARKS

Rather than formally writing to we thought a personal call would suffice. Mr. Shinn appreciated this type of a response.

STAT

George,

I called [] today re his memorandum (attached). He was a very pleasant individual who said he recognized we were not going to have an easy time on retirement issues but wanted to get his thoughts in anyway. I assured him we were not routinely accepting any of the proposed retirement changes and briefly explained to him what we are doing on retirement. He thanked me for the call and I offered that if he or any of his employees had any questions or concerns as a result of information in the media or elsewhere, to please feel free to call me and I would be happy to discuss what we are doing. He took my number and again expressed his appreciation.

P.S. This had a suspense of 1 day for response. We discussed and thought there might be a better way to answer.
